

3 Voices & Beatur

3Voices and Beatur is an accapella band that consist of four vocalists, three singers and a vocal percussionist (beatboxer)
The band was formed in Reykjavik, Iceland, during Christmas 2008/2009.

Starting out as street singers the band soon developed into one of the most popular ones in Iceland, singing in all kinds of different venues.

3 Voices and Beatur is a cover band that redoes songs of all genres from the 1930's jazz and swing to today's contemporary pop and Rn'B hit's.

Each vocalist brings their own distinctive flavour and background to every song, giving each song a fresh look and a unique balance mixed from different influences.

The shows are brightened up, not only by the girls' amazing singing, but also by Beatur's comical skills and their interactions are known to leave the audience in stitches.

To celebrate the first year anniversary the quartet recorded a Christmas album which sold out in 3 weeks.

3 Voices and Beatur love what they do, and it shows.

"When they sing the heavens open"
Sóley Kristjánsdóttir, DJ/celebrity icon

"I laughed so much I fell of my chair"
Þorbjörg Marínósdóttir, Reporter and TV host.

3Voices
& Beatnik

tel.+354 693 9453
www.3raddir.com
3voicesiceland@gmail.com